

Chef Brad

Chef Brad's catering business goes back generations. Family recipes from "Rozenia", who was well known for her good cooking, warm spirit, and her wowing personality are the driving force behind every succulent dish.

The personal touch added by the family business, that includes knowledgeable and experienced staff, gives everyone a mouth-watering dish with unique flair. They are looking forward to bringing this experience to their local community's children.

